Company start date: 31.01.2017

Dear Sir/Madam,

On 31.01.2017, an entry into the Companies House was made (Part 1 Companies Act 2006). www.cregister.co.uk is a collection of information on business entities, maintained in the computer system in the form of a central database updated on an ongoing basis. All our customers' trade names and companies are available on www.cregister.co.uk. This letter is an offer (Act 1982). Entry in the register allows you to use the central register in full, within the meaning of the Terms of Use (§ 2 dated 01.03.2017) of the central register. This is also the whole body of information in the form of a set of instructions, implemented interfaces and integrated data intended to achieve the objectives set. Publication of an entry in central register requires payment of an optional registration fee in accordance with the current central register rules (§ 6 dated 01.03.2017) of GBP 195 by 22.03.2017.

Go to www.cregister.co.uk and pay for the publication of your company. Lack of payment will result in lack of entry in the Central Register of Companies and Businesses.

Your Sincerely,
Administrator, www.cregister.co.uk
